HOME LIGHTING

1. White is most effective in reflecting light. Among other colors used in lamp and wall decoration, which is the most efficient illumination aid?
 (a) Green
 (b) Blue
 (c) Gray
 (d) Ivory

2. A new 60-watt Mazda lamp today costs 10c. What did a 60-watt bulb cost in 1923?
 (a) 10c
 (b) 20c
 (c) 30c
 (d) 40c

3. For proper lighting in your kitchen the wattage of the light bulb should be:
 (a) 60-watt
 (b) 100-watt
 (c) 150-watt
 (d) 200-watt

CORRECT ANSWERS

1. (d) Ivory's reflecting value averages 75%, as compared with 85% for white. Darker colors reflect proportionately less light, reducing their desirability in a well-lighted home.

2. (d) A 60-watt lamp cost 40c in 1923, or four times as much as it does today, and gave 50% less light.

3. (c) Kitchen work requires the light from a 150-watt lamp. All bulbs have their wattages stamped on them. Be sure you are using lamps of sufficient power.

Check your lighting room-by-room!

Besides adding accent to the beauty of your home, proper lighting provides eye-sight insurance for every member of your family. If you have been inclined to "take for granted" the lighting in your house, it would be wise to make a room-by-room check and correct any deficiencies. Better light means better sight!

OBITUARY

GEORGE R. WILLIAMS
 Services for George R. Williams, 65, who died Friday at his home, 2886 Park st., were conducted Tuesday by the Rev. Charles Swift in the Stone and Myers chapel. A veteran of World War I, he is survived by a brother, Dr. Daniel H. Williams, and four sisters, Mrs. Eva Kelley, Mrs. Nettie Phillips, Mrs. Maud D. Barber and Mrs. Mattie E. Hayes, all residing in Walteria. Interment was in Roosevelt cemetery.

ANNA HAASE
 Funeral services for Anna Haase, 64, who died Saturday, were conducted by the Rev. F. D. Meeching in Grace chapel, Inglewood, with the Stone and Myers mortuary in charge. Surviving are her widower, Albert J. Haase, 24415 Hawthorne Blvd.; Henry and Francis Haase; a daughter, Mrs. Annie Janis and a niece, Mrs. Charlotte Reed. Burial was in the Inglewood Park cemetery.

FREDERICK ALEXANDER TIFFANY
 Frederick Alexander Tiffany, 79, well known resident here for many years, died Tuesday at his home, 1808 Gramercy ave. A retired Army captain, Tiffany was affectionately known to his many friends as "Major." He is a retired employee of National Supply Co. and served during the Civilian Defense here. Prior to the United States' entry in World War II, the Major was Revolver Range master for the Torrance Police department, but upon the outbreak of hostilities he terminated these duties to work in a defense plant. Major Tiffany decided upon the plant job only after he failed to secure enlistment in the Army. He is survived by three nieces, Mrs. Douglas B. Collins, Torrance; Mrs. William Gimbel and Miss Margaret Tiffany, Los Angeles. Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. in Stone and Myers chapel.

BLANCHE MARIE CAMPBELL
 Services for Blanche Marie Campbell, 20, who died Sunday in a Los Angeles hospital, were conducted Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Grace chapel, Inglewood, by the Rev. W. Don Brown. Stone and Myers mortuary was in charge. A native of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Campbell had resided here for the past 15 months. She is survived by her widower, James R. Campbell and their infant daughter, Marcia Rae, 1106 El Prado; parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burwell, Los Angeles; sisters Bonnie Lee and Jacklyn, Los Angeles, and Dorris and Dolores Burwell, Washington; brother David Burwell, Los Angeles. Burial was in Inglewood Park cemetery.

C. M. BAIRD
 Services for C. M. Baird, 63, who died in Fresno last week, were conducted Monday in Lisle Brothers chapel, Fresno. He was a brother to Mrs. W. H. Haslam, 1519 Armapola ave., who with her husband, Willard Haslam, attended the funeral and interment. Other survivors are his widow, Mrs. Bertha Baird; two sons, Wayne and John Baird; brothers E. A. Baird and Walter Taylor; sisters Mrs. Helen Howard, Mrs. Ethel Petrea and Mrs. Ruth Mohr.

TOWNSEND CLUB
 Torrance Townsend club Friday will conduct its regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the Torrance Men's Bible class building, according to Mrs. Ethelyn Voochis, secretary. Bunco and dancing will follow the meeting, she announced.

REVOKED LICENSE
 Harold Miller, 23, 1729 Cabrillo ave., this week was fined $250 in Torrance City Court upon his plea of guilty to driving a motor vehicle without license. Miller, whose operator's license had been revoked for some time due to physical disabilities, was ordered by the local judge to pay $100 of the amount with $150 suspended.

W. A. Zoeller, C.P.A., Opening Torrance Office

William A. Zoeller, a certified public accountant in the state of California and Illinois, and an Associate in the American Institute of Accountants, has opened offices in Torrance at 1309 Sartori ave. He is a graduate, University of Illinois (1933), and has been engaged in public accounting since graduation in 1933, except for a period of military service.

Zoeller was a lieutenant colonel of the United States Army on duty from May, 1941 to March, 1946. He saw overseas service in England, France and Germany for 13 months as intelligence officer and assistant adjutant headquarters, 13th corps. He won the Bronze Star medal.

Zoeller resides at 529 South Helberta avenue, Redondo Beach and since his release from military service he has been controller for the Process Equipment company, Torrance.

Vanroys, Inc. Store Opening

Vanroys, Inc., Army and Navy war surplus store, is opening Saturday at 1437 Marcelina ave., next to the post office, with a store full of bargains in heretofore scarce items of merchandise.

The general manager is Lt. Col. R. W. Van Deventer, well known in Torrance and the South Bay area as executive officer of the Southern California Area, California State Guard, and formerly as commander of the 2nd Battalion, 4th Regiment, C.S.G., which included Torrance Company H, in the hectic early days of World War II. In World War I, he was a veteran of five combat operations overseas.

Vanroys, through veterans priorities, buys direct from the government and thus are able to sell to the public at a great savings, Van Deventer said. All items are personally selected and graded by members of the firm and only the very best is retained for sale to the public.

Vanroys specializes in work and sports wear for men and women, augmenting war surplus items with commercial goods as they become available.

"Our policy is to provide the very best at the lowest possible cost, and our motto is 'a good deal for everyone,'" Van Deventer said.
